The Beverly Farmhouse features board and batten siding, black windows, black gutters and downspouts, a Craftsman-style front door, and a covered front porch. Inside, the thoughtfully designed layout includes a primary bedroom suite on the main level. Carefully selected finishes continue the farmhouse style throughout, including black light fixtures, black interior door hinges, and black doorknobs. With its clean lines, contrasting finishes and inviting design, the Beverly Farmhouse offers a fresh and functional take on classic country living.
